WHO I AM

A resourceful, passionate, and thinking individual with strong problem solving and leadership abilities. Organised and diligent, with excellent oral, written and interpersonal communication skills. Keen interest in transnational corporate criminal accountability with proficiency drafting memorandums to counsel, legal research, document review and matter administration. Fluent in English and Spanish.

WHAT I'VE EXPERIENCED

Property A Tutor, Monash Law Students Society — 2020–present

Responsible for conducting two weekly seminar-style tutorials to an average of over 100 Property A students seeking to develop and strengthen their understanding of content covered in faculty-run lectures.

Editorial Committee Member, Monash University Law Review — 2020–present

Responsible for editing articles for the forthcoming issue of the Monash University Law Review. The editing process includes proofreading articles for spelling and grammatical errors, ensuring style compliance and the accuracy of citations and propositions, as well as locating and compiling primary and secondary sources.

Paralegal, Class Actions, Slater and Gordon — 2019–2020

Responsible for a variety of legal and administrative tasks across a variety of practice areas. Displayed particular proficiency in legal research and drafting memorandums to Barristers and Practice Group Leaders.

Co-Founder and Managing Director, Cure Plus Pty Ltd — 2018–Present

Co-founded a food-tech startup targeted at those with special dietary requirements ensuring they have visibility and access to restaurants and cafes that are accommodative to their particular dietary needs.

Shift Manager, Rebel Sport — 2016–present

Responsible for supervising a team of 8–15 in a sports retail store. Demonstrating strong leadership, critical thinking and problem-solving skills in addressing customer and employee concerns while ensuring the store meets its compliance obligations.
